

II. DRESS and APPEARANCE

Tokyo American Club prides itself on ensuring a welcoming atmosphere for Members and their guests. In preserving the ambience and traditions of the Club, the following serves as the minimum dress code requirements. When in doubt, visitors should err on the side of more conservative attire. Clothing and accessories must not display inappropriate images or messages (in any language) and must be neat and clean. The Club staff has the authority to refuse service or ask Members and guests who are inappropriately dressed to leave the premises. In the event of any dispute in respect to the form of dress, the General Manager or his designee's ruling will be final.
