

Life Membership

For Regular Members who cease to live in Japan, but who plan to visit for up to 60 days a year in the future, Life Membership may be an option to consider.

All Members becoming Life Members, who have not paid the full entrance fees (Resident Deferred, Term or Term Regular Members, for example), must pay the remaining balance prior to converting their status.

Conversions to Life Membership require a ¥125,000 conversion fee and a ¥75,000 deposit. There are no monthly dues.

Club Use Guidelines

1. A Life Member in good standing visiting Japan may use the facilities of the Club for up to 60 days per calendar year, with consecutive usage of no more than fourteen (14) days. A daily fee of ¥1,000 will be charged per membership. Members who use the Guest Studios will be exempt from the fee.

2. Conversion of membership is necessary if a Life Member requires use of the Club facilities more than a total of 60 days per calendar year.

3. Life Members must register at Member Services or the Membership Office and show their passports for proof of continuous residence outside of Japan to reactivate their membership status on the first day of each of visit.

4. Life Members enjoy full reciprocal club privileges.

5. Life Members may continue to carry their membership cards. However, they receive no monthly statement and must settle all charges by credit card upon.

6. Life Members returning as residents of Japan must convert back to Regular Membership and will be charged regular dues from the date of return. In addition, they will be required to pay an extra ¥125,000 to maintain the mandatory deposit of ¥200,000.

7. Members are ineligible for transfers, changes or conversions while their membership is in a state of delinquency. Members converting to Life Membership can settle their final statements by credit card.

8. Life Members are not entitled to voting privileges.
